ABOUT

WEITZER

Amber will tell you "I'm a pretty lucky lady! I grew up a Texas girl but born and raised in Michigan rooted in Midwest values with a solid work ethic and brought up respecting The Golden Rule". She was blessed with an amazing, sizable diverse family and a myriad of occupations from educators, coaches, military service, stay at home parents, factory workers, authors, C-suite, farmers, entrepreneurs and mentors...all to witness, observe and learn from along her journey.

Instinctively journaling and taking copious notes, paying attention along the way from her first retail job, to corporate America with a side hustle of dumpster diving for vintage treasures, an event, floral & wedding business then back to her roots of real estate as a 2nd generation Broker, whew! Her business, life and continuing educational experiences enriched her as she evolves in her journey. All of this exposure and experience allowed Amber to discover, define and unveil her true "Silhouette of Success" into the cultivation of who she is today.

She always felt a white hot burning passion simmering within and over the last many years, it all became clear. Amber shares lessons learned, tried and tested best practices, blunders and successes from her journey and the amazing women she encounters along the path to share the light to uplift, encourage, empower plus have some fun-it's all real here!

Amber thrives on sharing the light, through the stories on The Amber Weitzer Podcast, Silhouettes of Success or collaborating with Silhouettes of Success Sorority a membership based collective for professional, personal development, seminars future co-working space, and event rental.
